Account Termination Process

You may terminate your AccessReal account at any time through the self-service account termination feature available on the platform. Once a termination request is submitted, the process will take effect immediately, and no further identity verification will be required.

Data Deletion and Retention

Upon termination of your account, AccessReal will permanently delete all personal information associated with your account, including, but not limited to, your name, contact information, and any other identifiable data. Product scan data or query results linked to your account will be anonymized to ensure they are no longer identifiable to you.

Irreversibility of Account Termination

Account termination is a final and irreversible action. Once your account has been terminated, you will no longer have access to any services or data associated with the account, including, but not limited to, product verification tools, scan history, or query results. You acknowledge that AccessReal shall not be responsible for restoring any data or services after the account has been terminated.
